

Universitatea din Oradea

Departamentul de Studii Europene și Relații Internaționale

organizează conferința internațională cu tema

European Union as a global security player: challenges for the 21st Century

14 Octombrie 2011

10:00 Plenary session (University Central Library)

Welcome speech from the Rector of the University of Oradea, Professor Cornel Antal

Speech of the Dean of the Faculty of History, International Relations, Political Science and Communication Science,
Professor Ioan Horga

Key speakers:

Rt. Hon. Lord McConnell of Glenscorrodale, former Prime Minister of Scotland
Europe's Contribution to Global Security: Strengths and Challenges for the Future

Professor Anthony Pagden, UCLA
Perpetual War and 'Perpetual Peace' in Europe since 1648: What lessons for the future?

Panel 1: EU as a global security actor: from strategic assessment to effective implementation

Professor Giulia Sissa, UCLA

The first European attempt to unify Europe, and its dynamics of expansion in the name of security

Professor Janos Vador, Corvinus University, Budapest

Is There Still a Role for the EU to Play in Global Security in the 21st Century?

Professor Lia Pop, University of Oradea

Institutional Dimensions in Trans-Atlanticism after the Lisbon Treaty

Edina Meszaros, PhD student; Profesor Ioan Horga, University of Oradea

The securitization of the Eastern frontier of Europe

Lecturer Dacian Duna, Babeş-Bolyai University

The EU: the power of norms versus the norms of power

Lecturer Cristina Dogot, University of Oradea

EU individual political leadership and the challenges of the collective security

Lecturer Gabriela Goudenhoof, University of Oradea

Aspects of the EU concept concerning the area of freedom, security and justice

Alina Brihan, University of Oradea

Considerations on Europe's foreign and security directions after the Lisbon Treaty: institutions, strategies, perspectives versus the public support

Panel 2: EU, Mediterranean region and Africa: security challenges

Professor Roberto Farneti
The EU and the 'Israel Effect'

Lecturer Dorin Dolghi, University of Oradea
Security perspectives on European Neighbourhood Policy. Lessons from North Africa

Lecturer Irina Pop, University of Oradea
Humanitarian Actions in Africa

Cristian Şipeţeanu, PhD student, Romanian Academy
The African security variables at the beginning of the 21st Century

Claudiu Ţabrea, PhD student, Babeş-Bolyai University
Security Governance in the Euro-Mediterranean Region. Challenges for the European Union

Daniela Blaga, University of Oradea
African Migration to the EU, 'Clash of Civilization' or 'Track II Diplomacy'?